Hannibal is a city on the Mississippi River in northeast Missouri. The Mark Twain Boyhood Home and Museum is where the American writer grew up, and displays artifacts such as his typewriter and writing desk. The Mark Twain Cave Complex served as inspiration for his novels. Completed in 1900, Rockcliffe Mansion features art-nouveau decor and antique furniture.

9:00 a.m. – 5:30 p.m. – Hannibal Shuttle – Explore downtown Hannibal on your own. Take time for shopping and strolling through town. The shuttle makes one stop at the Mark Twain Boyhood Home & Museum.

10:00 a.m. Commerce on the Mississippi – Join our guest speaker, Dale Blanshan, in the Sky Lounge (Deck 4 Aft) for a lecture about towboats, locks and dams, the Army Corps of Engineers, bridges, and whatever else makes the Mississippi the great commercial artery that it is.

10:30 a.m. Rockcliffe Mansion – Step back in time and relive the adventures of Mark Twain's days in Hannibal. Your guide will share the history of Hannibal and will show you sites of historical importance. While on your excursion, visit Rockcliffe Mansion – this American "castle" has a breathtaking view overlooking the Mississippi and is on the National Register of Historic Homes.

11:00 a.m. Bridge, anyone? – Meet fellow guests in the Card Room (Deck 2 Midship) to play a fun game or two!
